The Cure for bad Meetings!

Ever wondered how to address the waste of time spent in too many meetings in the course of a year?

Many organizations introduce Golden Meeting Rules or Meeting Standards – sometimes even printed on nice colorful cards distributed in the meeting rooms.

But this usually does not help to change things for good! Why? Because we all already know that it is better to add an agenda to our meeting, to assign tasks with deadlines to individual attendees and to take structured meetings notes to get a grip on decisions.

The problem is not the knowing, it's the doing!

It is about building habits and paving the path to make it easier to do the things we already know.

And here yoyomeeting kicks in. yoyomeeting is the easy-to-use online meeting management tool.

Use it from anywhere with anyone in your team to boost meeting performance. With yoyomeeting, bad meetings are a thing of the past

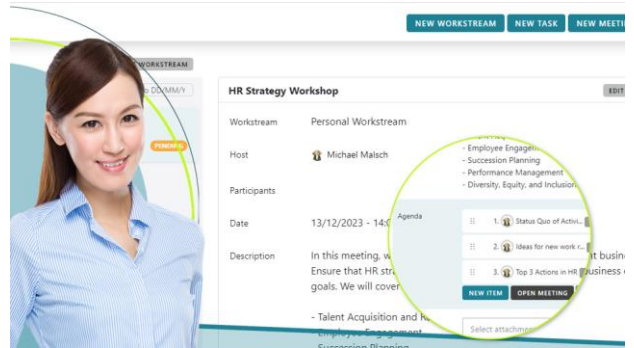

No complicated training, just plug and play!

A Question to the founders

Question: Michael, as one of the founders of yoyomeeting, why did you develop this new product in the first place?

All the founders of yoyomeeting worked in established industries or as digital consultants in their previous lifes. In many of these jobs we experienced employees complaining about too many, too long and too unproductive meetings. Everyone focussed on the complaining part, so we decided to focus on the solution part of this widespread meeting problem. And we came up with yoyomeeting.com yoyomeeting supports the meeting management process in your organization from agenda setting to generating structured meeting notes.

And in between, yoyomeeting offers an easy way to assign personal tasks, create shared task lists, record decisions and streamline your meetings with time boxing and much more – everything online.

Calculate your benefit

The more people use yoyomeeting, the higher your productivity gains by getting more done in less time.

According to Harvard Business Review, employees spend roughly 35% of their time in meetings! Wow! There is a huge potential to save time and money.

Check the example calculation on what you save:

number of users in your team	10
estimated savings on meeting cost (20%)	6,000 €
yoyomeeting subscription (10 users)	69 €
monthly savings in your organization	5,931 €

For the calculation we assumed one user has 20 one hour meetings per month with 2 additional attendees. That sums up to 60 meeting hours per month. Each hour is paid in average with 50 €, so the company invests 3.000 € for wages alone. With yoyomeeting we estimated an overall longterm meeting productivity increase of 20%, which sums up to estimated savings of 600 €/user/month.
